An Ordinance of the LORDS and COMMONS in Parliament assembled, for the Associating the severall Counties of York, Lancaster, Nottingham, Bishopprick of Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmerland.

Hereas Papists and other wicked and ill-affected Persons have Traiterously combined together, and entied into Association, and have raised, and daily do raise great Forces of Horse and Foot in severall Counties of this Kingdom, and are now actually leaving Warre in the Northern parts; and have there miserably plundered, spoiled, murdered and destroyed multitudes of his Maje-ties good Subjects, and, if not timely prevented, will utterly subvert the true Protestant Religion (which is their chiefest Design) the Laws of the Land, the Priviledges of the Parliament, and the Liberties of the Subject. For remedy whereof, and for the future protection of the people in those parts from those malicious and bloody Enemies, The Lords and Commons now in Parliament assembled, do hereby Order and Ordaine, that the severall Counties of York, (with the Citie of York and the Countie of the same, and the towne of Kingstone upon Hull, and the Countie of the same) Lancaster, Nottingham, Bishoppricke of Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland and Westmerland, shall bee associated: And that all well-affected Persons, Inhabitants of the said Counties, Citie and Places, shall, and may associate themselves, and mutually ayd, favour and assist one another in the defence and preservation of themselves, and of the Peace of the said Counties, Citie and Places. And for the better carrying on so necessary a work, in such manner as by this Ordinance shall bee limited and appointed; and for the raising of moneys and Forces within the said Counties and Places, for suppressing the said Rebels, and for the maintenance of all such Garrisons as are, or shall be by them erected by Authority of Parliament for the better defence of the same, the said Lords and Commons do Order and Ordaine, that there be forthwith raised and formed an Army consisting of two thousand and six hundred Horse, to be distributed into five Regiments of Horse; the Regiment of the Commander in Chief to consist of six hundred Horse, and each other Regiment of Horse to consist of five hundred; and of four hundred Dragoons to be distributed into five Companies; and of seven thousand Foot to be distributed into seven Regiments, each Regiment to consist consist of one thousand; Which Army shall bee payed, and shall be under such Command as is hereafter in this present Ordinance expressed and declared.

And it is hereby further ordained, that, for the purposes aforesaid, there shall bee raised in the County of Yorke, the Citie of Yorke and Countie of the same, the Towne of Kirgston upon Hull and Countie of the same, one thousand two hundred and fiftene Horse: In the Countie of Lancaster, foure hundred thirty and eight Horse: In the County of Nottingham, and Town of Nottingham, and Countie of the same, three hundred twenty and four Horse: In the County of Durham one hundred seventy and three horse: In the County of Northumberland, and Towne of Newcastle upon Tyne, and County of the same, one hundred seventy and three Horse: In the County of Cumberland, one hundred seventy and five Horse: In the Countie of Westmerland, one hundred and four Horse. In the County of Yorke, three thousand two hundred and seventy Foot: In the County of Lancaster, one thousand one hundred seventy and seven Foot: In the County of Nottingham and town of Nottingham, and County of the same, eight hundred seventy and two Foot: In the County of Durham, four hundred sixty and seven Foot: In the County of Northumberland and Towne of Newcastle upon Tyne, and County of the same, four hundred sixty and seven Foot: In the county of Cumberland, four hundred sixty and seven Foot: In the county of Westmerland, two hundred and eighty Foot. And in the County of Yorke, one hundred eighty and eight Dragoons: In the county of Lancaster, sixty and eight Dragoons: In the county of Nottingham and Town of Nottingham, and county of the same, fifty Dragoons: In the county of Durham, twenty and six Dragoons: In the County of Northumberland, and Town and county of Newcastle upon Tyne, twenty and six Dragoons: In the County of Cumberland, twenty and six Dragoons: In the County of Westmerland, sixteen Dragoons.

And for the maintenance of the said Forces, together with a Train of Artillery, the said Lords and Commons do hereby Ordain and Declare, that the severall monthly Assessements, Rates, Taxes, and Levies, herein after mentioned, shall from the first day of June 1645, be made upon the severall Counties of Nottingham, York, Lancaster, county Palatine of Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmerland, the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, the citie & county of the citie York, the Town of Kingston upon Hull, and county of the same, and the Town and county of the Town of Nottingham, (that is to say) upon the county of Nottingham, and the Town of Nottingham, and the county of the same, the monethly summe of one thousand eight hundred sixty and seven pounds, and six shillings: upon the county of Lancaster the monethly summe of two thousand five hundred and twenty pounds: Upon the county of York and the City of York, and county of the same, and the Town of Kingston upon Hull, and county of the same, the monethly summe of seven thousand pounds: Upon the county of Durham, the monethly summe of one thousand pounds: Upon the county of Northumberland and the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, and county of the same, the monethly summe of one thousand pounds: Upon the county of Cumberland, the monethly summe of one thousand pounds: Upon the County of Westmerland, the monethly sum of six hundred pounds. All which severall summes respectively before mentioned, are monethly to bee levied and collected within and upon the

And the said Lords and Commons do hereby further Ordain, that all such summe and summs of mony as shall arise or grow due out of any of the Revenues whatsoever belonging to the King, Queen & Prince, within the survey of what Court soever the same be, and all the Arrerages of the same in the said Counties, Rydings, Cities, Towns and Places, shall be imployed for the payment of the said Forces, which said moneys arising out of the said Revenues of the King, Queen or Prince, and the Arrerages thereof, the respective Receiver and Receivers the cof, are hereby authorized and required from time to time, to pay as aforesaid, to the Treasurer of the said Army for the time being.

And it is further Ordained, that the said respective 3 Committees or any three of them, shall have full power and authority within their severall and respective divisions to nominate Collectors for the money so assessed and rated as aforesaid, according to this Ordinance, who shall Collect the said moneys so assessed, and pay the same to the Treasurer of the said Forces for the time being. And if any person or persons shall refuse to pay the moneys assessed upon him or them, or shall not pay 10 the same within ten dayes after demand, at the place where such person or persons shall be assessed, It shall and may be lawfull to and for the said respective Collectors or any one of them, to leavy all such summe and summs of money mony so assessed, by way of distresse & sale of the goods of the person or persons so assessed & refusing, whereforever the same shall be found, & to break open any house where any such Goods are, and to render the overplus of the value of the Goods to the Owners.

Break open any house

And the said Lords and Commons do hereby Ordain and declare, that the said respective Committees in the said severall Counties, Rydings, Cities, Townes and places afore mentioned, and the severall Collectors by them to be named, shall have like power and authority in all things respectively, as the Committees named in the Ordinance made in this behalf, and the Collectors there appointed to bee named by them, have by that Ordinance; and that the said Committees, and the said Collectors may in all things proceed herein according to the severall powers by former Ordinances of Parliament therein given, as if the said powers and authorities were here respectively rehearsed.

And the said Lords and Commons do hereby further declare, that what shall be deficient by the means afore said, for the reall paiment of the said Forces, shall hereafter be supplied by such other wayes and means as the said Lords and Commons shall appoint.

And it is further Ordained, That every of the said respective Committees, or any three of them in the said respective Counties, Ridings, Cities, Towns, and places respectively, shall have power and authority to put in execution within the said severall Counties, Cities, Towns and places, the Ordinance of 29 of June 1643. for administration of the Vow and Covenant, appointed to be taken by every man throughout the Kingdome according to the instructions, how and in what manner the same ought to be taken.

— Covenant

And it is further Ordained, That the said respective

Committees in the said respective Countyes, Rydings, Cityes and places respectively, or any five of them, shall hereby have power to nominate and appoint all Colonels, Lieutenant-Colonels, Majors, Captains, and all other Officers, both of Horse and Foot, to command over the Forces both of Horse and Foot, raised or maintained by vertue of this Ordinance in the severall and respective Countyes, Rydings, Cityes and places aforesaid; And such persons or any five of them, as shall from time to time have power to Order and direct the said Forces in the said Associated Counties, Rydings, Cityes, and places, are authorized and required to grant Commissions to them accordingly, and the Commander in chief of the said Forces in the said Countyes and places aforesaid, who shall from time to time be thereunto enabled by authority of Parliament, together with the Colonels and other Officers nominated and appointed, as aforesaid, shall have power and authority, and hereby have power and authority in any the severall and respective Countyes, Rydings, Cityes and places, according to the course of Warre, to lead the said Forces so raised or maintayned by vertue of this Ordinance, unto any place which shall be fitting and convenient, and to give battell, and to fight with all such Forces as are, or shall be raised without authority of both Houses of Parliament, and do make insurrections, plunder and destroy his Majesties good subjects, or leavy Warre against the Parliament, and them to invade, resist, suppress, subdue, and pursue, kill and slay, and put to execution of death, and by all meanes to destroy as enemies to the Kingdome, Observing from time to time such Order and directions, as they shall receive from the Committees hereafter named in this present Ordinance, for the Ordering and directing of the said Forces, The said said Committees and the said Commander in chief, and all other Officers, observing also from time to time such Orders and Directions as they shall receive from both Houses of Parliament, or from the Committee of both Kingdomes residing at Westminster.

And it is further Ordered and Ordained by the sayd Lords and Commons, and the said Lords and Commons doe hereby Order and Ordain, and appoynt, That the severall Members of the House of Commons, now serving for the respective Countyes, Cityes, Towns, and places within the sayd Association. And Sir Thomas Fairfax, and Sir William Lister, Knights, for the West-Ryding of the Countie of York, and the City of York, and County of the same; and that Bryan Stapleton and George Trotter, Esquires for the North-ryding of York; and Sir Matthew Boynton, Knight and Barone, for the East-ryding of the County of Yorke, and the Towne of Kingston upon Hull, County of the same; and that Richard Houghton and Peter Egerton, Esquires, for the County of Lincaster; and Francis Pirreport, Esquire. For the County of Nottingham and the Town of Nottingham, and County of the same; and Sir George Vane, Knight, for the County of Durham; and William Fenwicke of Wallington, Esquire, for the County of Northumberland and Towne of Newcastle upon Tyne, and County of the same; and Sir Wilfride Lawson for the County of Cumberland; and Imies Bellingham of Levens for the County of Westmerland: and Collonell Poyner, or any seven of them, shall hereby have power and authority to Order and direct all the said Forces, Commanders, Collonels, and other Officers, raised and to be raised within the said Association, by verue of this Ordinance of Parliament; and the sayd persons shall observe from time to time such Orders and Directions as they shall receive from the two Houses of Parliament, or from the Committee of the two Kingdoms, sitting at Westminster.

And it is further Ordered and Ordained, that the said Committees so lastly nominated and appointed as aforesaid, or any five of them, shall have power and authority to nominate and appoint one Treasurer at Warre, and also to nominate and appoint the severall Officers of the Train of Artillery for the said Army; and shall also have power and authority from time to time to displace the said Officers, or any of them, and to appoint any other person or persons in the Roome and place of such person or persons as shall be so displaced.

And it is further Ordered and Ordained, that the Treasurer of the said Army for the time being shall from time to time, issue out, and pay the moneys raised by this Ordinance out of the respective Counties, Ridings, Cities, Towns and places, to and for the use of the said Forces raised within the said respective counties, cities, towns and places respectively, according to such Order and direction, as hee shall receive from time to time from the said Committee, or any five of them, appointed as aforesaid for the Ordering of the Warre, by writing under their or any five of their hands, and not otherwise: which said writing under their, or any five of their hands, shall be a sufficient warrant to the said Treasurer in that behalf. And for the better encouragement of the said Treasurer, and Sub-Treasurers, collectors, and other the Officers, to be nominated and employed in the said service, by the said severall and respective Committees, in the severall counties, cities, Rydings and places aforesaid, for the collecting and bringing in or paying & issuing out respectively of all such moneys, so to be levied and raised by this Ordinance, as aforesaid, It is Ordained dained further by the said Lords and Commons that the severall and respective Committees, in the said severall counties, cities, ridings and places aforesaid respectively, shall have power and authority, and are hereby authorized from time to time, to give and allow to the said Treasurers, Sub-Treasurers, collectors, and other the Officers nominated and imployed as aforesaid, for their charge, pains and attendance on that service, as also for and towards the payments of all other incident charges in and about the said Army, such summe and summs of money, as by the said severall and respective Committees in the said severall counties, cities, Ridings and places shall be adjudged convenient and necessary.

Provided that the said summe and summs so to bee given and allowed to the said Officers and persons imployed, exceed not the summe of eight pence in every pound collected and paid.

And it is further Ordained, that the said respective Committees, in the said respective counties, Ridings, cities and places, shall have power from time to time, to raise and leavie by way of presse, or otherwise, such number of men as shall bee fit and necessary for the recruiting and compleating of the Forces to be maintained by this Ordinance for the defence of the said counties, observing alwayes such Rules and Limitations for the pressing of Souldiers as are particularly mentioned in the Ordinance for the impressing of Souldiers for the Army under the command of Sir THOMAS FAIRFAX: And shall have power to Regulate the pay of any the Officers and Souldiers, raised, or intended to be raised or maintained by vertue of this Ordinance, in such sort as they shall think most fit and advantageous for the good of the said Associated counties. Provided alwayes that the same exceed not the pay established for the Army under the command of Sir THOMAS FAIRFAX; And the said severall and respective standing-Committees in the said respective counties, Ridings, cities and places respectively, shall have power to nominate and appoint such persons as they shall think fit, (Provided they bee not accomprants themselves for any thing done by them within the said respective Associated counties) to take the Accompts of all committees, Officers and persons whatsoever, within the said respective Associated counties, Ridings, cities, townes and places, who have raised or received any Plate, Monneys, Goods, or other things, for which they ought to be accomprable to the State: A true copie of which Accompts so by them taken, shall bee fairly transcribed, and by the said persons subscribed, and transmitted to the Committee for the taking the Accompts of the whole Kingdom. And to the intent that due and perfect Accompts may bee made and kept of all and every summe and summs of money, of what sort soever upon any of the forementioned particulars to be received by the vertue of this Ordinance, It is further Ordained by the said Lords and Commons, that one particular booke of Accompts (to bee called the Booke of Control) shall be carefully kept and preserved in and for every one of the said severall and respective counties and Ridings by every of the said severall and respective committees of such respective county, Riding, city, towne, and place afore mentioned; and that due entry shall be made in the said Booke of all such summe and summs of money as shall arise and become payable, and be paid to the Treasurer, Sub-Treasurers, or Deputy-Treasurer within every such severall and respective county, Riding, city, towne, and place afore said, for the use and exchequer; and every such entry shall containe the the severall Counties, Cities, Towns, and Places before particularly named, by the severall Committees herein named. That is to say,
